

BUZZING BEES, WHO OPEN SERIES WITH LEADERS MONDAY

RIGHT UP THERE—We wanted to wait until the Char- first game by 3-2 and losing the second by 1-0. They play in lotte Hornets took the league lead before printing this photo, Asheville again today. but they're close enough now. Monday night at Hayman park. Photo of the club shows: top row, left to right—Otto Mey- Al Evans, catcher; Henry Coppola, pitcher (no longer with club); Beverly Ferrell, center fielder; Joe Haynes, pitcher; Gil Torres, utility. Bottom row—Jerry Lynn, second baseman; they open a three-game series with Norfolk's league leading ers, right fielder; Bucky Jacobs, pitcher; Frank Petticolas, Frank Trechock, third baseman; Manager Calvin Griffith; Tars and likely will have a chance to go on top. Yesterday pitcher: Arnold Anderson, pitcher; Early Wynn, pitcher; Ellis Clary, shortstop; Bob Prichard, first baseman. (Observer the Hornets split a double bill with Asheville, winning the Bobby Estalella, left fielder. Middle row—Jake Early, catcher; Staff Photo by Jake Houston.)