

Super-sonic Transport Division of Boeing Aircraft in Seattle.

Other sons and daughters attending with their families will be, Mr. and Mrs. Calitro (Margaret Coppola) of Old Lyme, Connecticut; Mrs. Carmella Wallace of Manchester, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. S. John Coppola of Baltimore, Maryland; Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Coppola of Milford, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony H. Coppola of this town, Mr. and Mrs. Francis (Coppola) C. Shumate of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Coppola of Bethesda, Maryland; and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Smyth (Ann Coppola) of Worcester.

All but the three eldest were born in Douglas. There are 24 grandchildren of the family, 29 great grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. The oldest member of the family is Mrs. Calitro. The youngest Coppola is Rebecca Chase Coppola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Coppola of Douglas and Cambridge. Young-

Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Carr of New Canaan, Conn.

The week's activities will include several family dinner parties. Daytime activities will be held at Wallum Lake Terrace.

COPPOLA REUNION

Gathering here this week will be fifty members of the 74-member Coppola Family. They represent the six sons and four daughters of the late Frank and Antonetta Coppola. All but one, the late Nick Coppola, the eldest son, survive. He will be represented by his wife, Helen, of Falls Church, Virginia and their daughter and family, Air Force Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Lester Romine and four children of Ammandale, Va.

Retired Navy Captain Joseph A. Coppola and his wife Rita of Seattle, Washington will be with their family for the first time in ten years. He is presently