

Frank J. Coppola

Frank J. Coppola, 55, owner of a real estate business and advertising specialties firm in Bethesda, died Tuesday of lung cancer in Suburban Hospital. He lived on Carter Court in Bethesda.

Coppola, a native of East Douglas, Mass., moved to the Washington area in 1939 and attended George Washington University before serving with the 3rd Armored Division in Europe during World War II.

He started his Coppco advertising business in 1946

Frances M. Walsh

Frances Murray Walsh, 78, a founding member of the Army Distaff Hall here, and his Frank J. Coppola real estate company 12 years ago. Both businesses are on Fernwood Road in Bethesda.

Coppola was active in the Men's Club of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church.

He leaves his wife, Catherine A., three sons, Michael A., Frank J. and Arthur P., and three daughters, Kathleen M., Patricia A. and Christine A., of Bethesda.

Mass will be said at 11 a.m. tomorrow in Our Lady of Mercy Church, 9200 Kentsdale Drive, Potomac, with burial in St. Gabriel's Cemetery.

The family suggests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to Georgetown Preparatory School or St. Johns High School.