

STARTS ALL OVER AGAIN AT ORLANDO.

Here's Henry Coppola, the pitcher who blanked the Red Sox, 3-0, yielding only five hits, in his only big league start in 1935. He retired with a sore arm and recently underwent an appendectomy, but Griff likes his fast ball and will give him another chance to make good.

—Photo by Elwood Baker, Star Staff.